

FBS Privacy Policy

FBS considers all the data submitted to our web sites private and will not use that data for any purpose other than as described below.

1. MLS Data and Media. MLS information includes all information about listings, including photos and other media, as well as the members of the MLS and contact information related to those members and offices. All MLS information is owned by the MLS (not FBS) and is only disclosed as allowed by MLS rules and FBS's contract with the MLS.
2. Web Logs. The FBS web servers collect logs of visits and that data is used by FBS for analytical purposes by FBS on our own behalf and for our MLS customers to understand general traffic patterns and also for customer support, trouble shooting and security monitoring purposes. FBS does not disclose log information to third parties except as required by law.
3. Cookies. Some FBS web sites store cookies on your computer for authentication, session management and to help improve your experience with our web sites. We do not disclose any information collected or stored in cookies to third parties except as required by law.
4. The FBS Blog. The FBS Blog collects name, email and IP address from those who post comments. FBS only uses that information to moderate comments and will not disclose it to any other person for any other purpose except as required by law.
5. Amendments. FBS may amend this privacy policy from time to time and so we encourage you to periodically review it.
